PATRICK COBBS

running back

Patrick Cobbs did a little bit of everything to help the Dolphins beat the Oakland Raiders.

Not only did he rush three times for 23 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown, and catch three passes, Cobbs also made two tackles on special teams. The second forced Oakland to begin its final drive at its 20-yard line. Cobbs is the El Palacio Player of the Game.

Also deserving mention were WR Ted Ginn Jr., who scored on a 40-yard touchdown run and also kept alive the game-winning field goal drive with a 7-yard catch on fourth-and-5; and DE Vonnie Holliday, who had four tackles, including 1.5 sacks.

quarterback

The Dolphins came up short in their shootout against the Patriots, but it certainly wasn't Chad Pennington's fault.

On the contrary, he kept the Dolphins in the game by passing for a season-high 341 yards and three touchdowns, as well as scoring on a 7-yard scramble in the first half.

Pennington is the El Palacio Player of the Game.

Also deserving mention was WR Davone Bess, who caught five passes for a career-high 88 yards; and WR Greg Camarillo, who had six catches for 75 yards and a touchdown.
