About how many hours a week do you spend online?	Maybe no more than three hours total	I'm going to say three.	Maybe an hour a day or 4-5 hours a week.	Not a whole lot. I might spend about five or six hours.
What's your favorite website to visit?	My inbox to check my e-mails 	Google, because it will take you anywhere you want to go. 	NFL.com 	YouTube I'm a big YouTube guy. I like going onto YouTube because I like checking out music videos and other stuff.
About how many e-mails do you receive each day?	Maybe 20 or 25 	About 30	Probably five or so, and it's mostly spam. I have a bad habit of not checking my e-mail or not responding.	Probably about 30 e-mails
What frustrates you most about the Internet?	When you have wireless and you're trying to get on and you get kicked off, or it's real slow to connect 	All the crazy pop-ups that show up on your screen and the fact that it's so easy for kids to be able to get into anything.	When it doesn't work	I have the wireless, so sometimes I can't get on right away and that drives me crazy.
Which teammate's e-mails would be most entertaining to monitor?	Channing Crowder 	Channing Crowder	Channing Crowder 	Channing Crowder
How Internet-savvy are you?	I'm very savvy, probably an 8 out of 10. I've taken some Internet courses.	I'd say probably a 2. I don't give myself much credit.	I'm pretty savvy with computers in general. 	On a scale of 1-10, I'd probably say a 3.
